

Ron Fetner

Quotes

“Not only can Fetner write a lyric, his melodies are contagious and his voice rich. With clear-sighted lyrics, he paints powerful but unassuming images on canvas, images that remind us of the simple pleasures in life. I strongly suggest to everyone that you hear Ron Fetner.” – Tidewater Friends of Folk Music

“...really great music. Listeners love Ron’s songs.” – Mike Flynn, NPR’s “The Folk Sampler”

“(Defying Gravity) a collection of thoughtful, melodic songs full of true stories and intellectually satisfying lyrical journeys...he obviously has his spiritual side, one that’s especially evident in “We Have Come” and the hit-in-waiting, “My Name is Justin... You could say he’s our David Mallett, as he reminds me of Maine’s favorite-son folk songwriter.” – Jim Newsom, PortFolio Weekly, Virginia Beach, VA

“His gifts for writing/performing are remarkable...and moving.” – Joe Henry, Acoustic Sounds Café, Little Rock, AR

“If you are ever given an opportunity to see this songwriter and performeryou will certainly be moved, both emotionally and physically.” – The Virginia Gazette

“...pours a lot of real life into his original tunes, .emotional honesty.” – Daily Press, Newport News, VA

“There is a lot of reflection in the lyrics. Ron chases memories in “Chevy Blue”, covers cowboys and baseball of youth in “Fields” and displays solid writing on the title tune.” – Autograph Magazine

“I could play this all night.” – Mike Montgomery, WCMS, Virginia Beach, VA
